

WESCO CODE OF CONDUCT COACHES Coach - PLAYERS Play - PARENTS Cheer - REFEREES Ref!

WESCO AGREES TO PROVIDE:

- A safe environment in which the Player can learn and develop during trainings & games
- A structured soccer learning curriculum appropriate to the age, ability and growth of the Player
- Guidelines to the Player and parents/guardians on the best ways for them to contribute to the Player's soccer development
- Support the continued academic and personal development of the Player

COACH AGREES TO:

- Show respect at ALL times to parents, players, the opponent, referees, and coaches
- Show up on time and prepared for all training sessions and games
- Communicate timely with parents concerning adjustments to training times, plans for tournaments, or "friendly" games that are scheduled
- Motivate and develop ALL players from top to bottom throughout the year

PLAYER AGREES TO:

- Show respect at ALL times to parents, players, the opponent, referees, and coaches
- Attend the training and games regularly and punctually, behave with self-discipline and give notice of and reasons for any absence
- Bring all personal equipment to training sessions
- Practice the techniques and skills taught by WESCO and attempt to apply them in matches
- Attend school regularly and punctually, complete school assignments and behave at school as you would at WESCO
- Follow a lifestyle appropriate to development spending off time positively; eating, drinking, relaxing and sleeping sensibly
- Realize that should he/she break any of the team rules, promise to accept any of the consequences given by the coach

PARENTS/GUARDIANS AGREE TO:

- Show respect at ALL times to parents, players, the opponent, referees, and coaches
- Encourage and help the Player meet targets, including this Code of Conduct
- Support the Player without pressure, praise good work and refrain from criticizing players, coaches, referees and opponents
- Set a good example to the Player by being on-time and positive
- Stay on their side and not behind the goal or on the team-side of the pitch
- Communicate with WESCO staff and volunteers, keeping them informed about matters affecting the Player
- Promise not to coach their child in any way that might affect the instruction of the coach. If questions arise as to the subject of training content or skill acquisition, ask the coach about this so that they can reinforce the instruction
- Understand that by having a child on this team, it creates a great commitment to the club, the coach, and the other parents/ players on the team. Parents agree to do their utmost to fulfill any and all obligations and contribute to the positive development of the child and the team.
